

RUSSIA

This guide is compiled from the FIDI Customs Guide for reference only. Customs regulations change frequently; please consult your Seapoe relocation consultant for the latest requirements before shipping.

Updated 2024

Household Goods

Documents Required

- Russian citizen:
- Russian passport scan-copy (photo page and registration)
- Visa scan-copy of the country where the shipper is moving
- Stamp in international passport proving arrival to destination country – scan-copy
- International passport copy (photo page)
- Notarized Power of Attorney for customs clearance – original
- Foreign citizen:
- International passport scan-copy
- Russian Visa scan-copy
- Stamp in international passport proving arrival to destination country – scan-copy
- Russian registration copy
- Power of Attorney for customs notarized by Russian notary public.

Remarks

- Objects of art must have a certification by Ministry of Culture
- Recommendation for Russian citizens to visit Russian Consulate at destination and register there in order to get the possibility of duty-free importation of used HHGs when back to Russia